THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and Thursday.

THE TRUE STATE

OF DEMOCRACY.

A great many of those who believe simplicity in whatever Rev. Sam mes says are rabid Democrats. So as Rev. Jones himself once. Rev.

mes is constantly traveling over the country, especially in the South, where he lives, and not only is in a position to judge conditions but is not afraid to tell what he has learned. Here are some of his latest observations on the Democratic party:

"The my advice to the Democrats is not to hold any national convention next year. They will save both time and effort."

"The William J. Bryan's assets as a political corpse are greater than as a substantial candidate."

"The Grover Cleveland is one of the richest Democrats of today who is conscious. While he has never gone back to Democratic principles, the Bryan of the party have long ago flopped into the Pop pen."

"The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says:

Gulf Jones, speaking of the feeling

South regarding the next candidate for president on the Democratic 1908, said that it was one of apathy, hurry the people apparently regarded it as a foregone conclusion that the Democratic national ticket was doomed to failure and consequently felt no great interest in the probable candidates.

"A man remarked that it was a case of even eat dog" with Democrats, as the day is a element in the party would same knife a Cleveland man, and the land wing would do the same

Bryan candidate.

"Under the circumstances, he could preliminary advice to Democrats to refrain from time and whiskey by refrain from holding a national convention."

in the L. he said, would be worth as a political corpse than as a 508.32 for the third time. The Sixth district of the South, he stated, ney and O'Brien, who had no influential friends, establishes a precedent that will remain fresh in the minds of the people when other cases of a similar nature come up in the state, and may have a salutary effect in reducing the number of murders.

Not only the people of Kentucky, but the whole world, is watching events growing out of the trouble in Breathitt county. The Louisville Post says: "The occurrences Friday in Breathitt show why it is difficult to induce witnesses to testify to what they saw. Coldiron says he saw Britton shoot Cockrill. Greene says he does not recognize Britton, therefore Coldiron is arrested on an affidavit charging perjury, and the grand jury is asked to indict not Britton, but Coldiron. Citizens of Kentucky, watch Breathitt. It has more interest for us than any news from Wall street."

DRAGGED BY A CAR

Painful Accident of Mr. Warren Thornberry Last Evening.

His Injuries Are Not Considered Serious—Lady Takes Insect Poison Through Mistake.

A FEW SMALLER MISHAPS

Mr. Warren Thornberry fell from a Broadway car last evening about 6 o'clock near the corner of Fifth and Broadway and was painfully, though not seriously hurt.

Mr. Thornberry had descended from the car to assist a lady off, and when he started to get back on the car started before he had a firm hold and he fell. He was dragged for some distance, and is painfully skinned and bruised. He was carried to the office of Dr. P. H. Stewart on Broadway between Fourth and Fifth, where his injuries were dressed by Drs. P. H.
Stewart, D. T. Stuart, Robert Rivers and Johnson Bass. He was later carried to the residence of his sister, Mrs.
James E. English, on Fountain avenue. He is suffering from considerable soreness from the fall, but will be able to be out in a few days.

Mr. Thornberry is well known and has many friends, and the accident gave rise to many exaggerated reports.
His friends will be pleased to learn he is not seriously hurt.

Mrs. Taylor Walker of 609 Jefferson street took some liquid insect poison through mistake Saturday evening, thinking it was nerve medicine, and but for the timely arrival of Drs.
Frank Boyd and D. J. Foster would probably have died from the effects.
She was soon out of danger, the effects of the poison not having had time to manifest themselves when the physicians arrived.

Mr. R. E. Drennan, proprietor of the Richmond house bar, while drying his hands Saturday night cut his hand on a piece of glass that had gotten into the towel. One finger was badly cut and he is unable to be on duty.
Mr. Fred Gray is acting in his place today.

Dick Redd, colored, porter at the New Richmond bar, had his left wrist painfully cut Saturday night by falling through a glass door while "sky-larking" with a companion. Drs.
Hoyer and Robertson attended him.

Adrian Todd, a car repairer on the L. C., was painfully hurt Saturday afternoon by a piece of flying steel penetrating his leg.

Miss May Plemons, 785 Boyd street, had a finger badly mashed in one of the machines at Bishop's laundry on South Third Saturday evening.

MINISTERS MEET.

BASEBALL RESOLUTIONS MAY
LATER BE ADOPTED.

The Ministerial association met this morning in the office of Rev. G. W.
Perryman, of the First Baptist church.
Resolutions regarding Sunday base ball were presented, but were not given out today for publication. It is understood they may be presented to the mayor.

Cairo Takes Two Games From Padu-

SCHEDULE FOR TODAY.

Cairo at Paducah.
Clarksville at Jackson.
Hopkinsville at Henderson.

Before a crowd of three thousand or more people, the banner attendance of the K. I. T. league, Paducah fell an easy victim to Cairo's aggregation of sluggers for the second time, yesterday afternoon at Wallace park by a score of 10 to 1. The vast throng completely filled the grand stand long before the game was called, and overflowed into the bleachers, along the fence leading to the gate, and finally into right field, where a hot ball would have played havoc with them.

Cairo had the game won early, which made it almost devoid of interest. Best twirled for Paducah and it became evident soon after the first ball was pitched that the bunch of paddle wielders from the Egyptian City could bat any man who would throw 'em in reach. There were two home runs knocked during the game, one by Wallace, who got two the day before, and the other by "Dummy" Hughes.
Brown, Paducah's new catcher, was hit in the head by a pitched ball and disabled, and Edmunds, who has been playing first base, was substituted, catching a good game during the two innings he wore the mit.

Paducah played fairly well, but was able to score only once on Brockett's puzzles. Once or twice it seemed the umpire was giving Cairo the best of it, but he evened things up by other decisions. The crowd was orderly and seemed to enjoy the game, despite the uncomfortable positions of many, hundreds having to stand up. The Cairo crowd was on hand several hundred strong, and Paducah's rooters club was there, but there was little rooting after the first inning or two.
